About the release and the artist

Luca Scapellato (LSKA) is a musician, sound designer and videoartist, born in Bari in 1985, after spending a brief period of nomadhood during his early infancy, he grew up in Vicenza.

After classical and sociological studies, in 2012 he graduated as "Interactive Music Technician for Digital Arts" at Scuola di Alto Perfezionamento Musicale (APM), Italy. In 2016, he participated in the 'In Vivo - Electro' workshop at IRCAM, Paris.

Starting from the study of musical improvisation and bringing it together with the passion for computing, he developed his interest in sound experimentation based on interactive systems for the creation of electronic music and audiovisual performance.

He focuses mainly on the interaction between music and image, between instrument and user, and the relationships that arise during improvisation between musician and performer.

His music is inspired by dub and minimalism, with an experimental twist. He has collaborated with many italian and international choreographers and performing artists, and has released three self-produced albums:

- Delicate (2011)
- Walls / Dub Reinassance (2013)
- About Time (2014)
