

De Marion

Down The Road Of Mainstream I Saw You, Canzone

About the artist and the album

De Marion is the the moniker of Dario Serra, Suzanne'Silver guitarist.

Shy bedroom-songwriter in love with Barrett and disillusioned player of homemade sinister lo-fi folk blues melodies, De Marion doesn't hide his love for fuzzes, useless samples and performance errors.

Hailing from Siracusa (South Italy or North Africa) De Marion recorded a lot of solo stuff since his youth but released only two albums: "De Marion" (2005) and "My Kingdom For A Couch" (2008) with Noja Recordings, the fake label of his Suzanne's bandmate Carlo Barbagallo.

In the last ten years the project has evolved thanks to several collaborations to the current lineup formed by Dario (voice, guitar, sampler) and Danilo Garro from the band Mashrooms (drums, synths and high / low glycemcic).
