Müholos is the creation of learned scientist Doctor Alfred Müller, who has dedicated his life to the complex development of a luminescent sound machine which emits intense pleasure. Obsessed with his creation, Doctor Müller, did not realise that his peers were basing their research around commercial, economic and political interests, while for him, Müholos had been developed purely in the spirit of sharing, love and entertainment.

With the scientific community's lack of interest in the Doctor's research the project slipped into oblivion. Nevertheless, Müholos remained a top priority for Doctor Müller despite the jeering and mockery of his colleagues!

During the 90s, no longer having the means to complete his creation, Doctor Müller fell into a deep depression and left the scientific world, retreating into alcoholism. Müholos remained his only companion during this dark period. Furthermore, it was his obsession with his robot that gave him the drive to go back to work and begin detox.

Doctor Müller is now ready and proud to show you his creation: Müholos!

"Psychosomnia" by Müholos is a powerful kind of audio therapy. Follow the dosage to the letter or be subject to permanent electronic ecstasy!
